A Great Confession

In Romans 10:17, Paul reminds us that “faith comes from hearing and hearing by the word of Christ.” It is here that Paul instructs that in order for us to have faith, we must have heard the word of Christ. However, in order for us to hear the word of Christ and put our faith in Him, someone had to confess.

A few weeks ago in class I asked what does it mean to confess? And without fail the answer was to admit to something bad. While this is a good definition and correct answer, it's not the only answer because confessing doesn't always have to mean admitting that we've done wrong. On the other hand, it can actually mean we are admitting to something right.

In Romans 10:8ff, Paul says “The Word is near you and in your mouth and in your heart” (v.8) and “if you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved; for with the heart a person believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses, resulting in salvation” (vs. 9-10).

Nowhere in these verses did I read about a confession of anything that was bad, rather something that was very beautiful and good. Something that Paul says is near our mouth and in our heart. Something, that if we confess, it will bring about righteousness and salvation. What Paul wrote is the confession that “Jesus as Lord.”

Perhaps in the court of law when someone is guilty they must confess to breaking the law. Likewise, when we sin, we must repent and confess to God our sins. But confession doesn't always have to be because someone broke a law or a sin. Confession, can also be something good.

“Faith comes by hearing” says Paul. Perhaps you are sitting in a pew this morning reading this article because someone confessed to, “Jesus as Lord.” It might have been a friend or family member. But now it's your turn. It's my turn. Romans 10:15, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news of good things.”

May we make the confession, “Jesus as Lord.” May we bring good news of good things.

Special Thanks!

New Mexico Christian Children's Home received their gifts from us. The bowls/spoons and large frying pan for each cottage were wonderful. They are very much appreciated by the Children's Home. Thank you to everyone here at this congregation who contributed towards this effort.
