"He must become greater and greater, and I must become less and less."

John 3:30

Now Get Moving

Deuteronomy 2:24

If I had to summarize the biggest statements of Moses' speech to Israel in the beginning chapters of Deuteronomy, I would do it in these three words, "Now get moving!" (Deut. 2:24). Moses retells the history of their release from Egyptian bondage, their wilderness wanderings, their rebellion, scouting out promised land, and their victories over King Sihon and Og. And through this speech is the continuous reminder to keep moving from Egypt and to the land God has promised them.

There were times when Israel grumbled and complained. Yet God would remind them, "Don't be shocked or afraid of them! The Lord your God is going ahead of you. He will fight for you just as you saw him do in Egypt. And you saw how the Lord your God cared for you all along the way as you traveled through the wilderness, just as a father cares for his child. Now he has brought you to this place" (Deut. 1: 29-31).

Just like God wanted Israel to keep moving from Egypt the place of slavery, bondage, and suffering, God wants us to do the same. Every day we are faced with Egypt. We are tempted to enslave ourselves to sin by going against what God wants us to do. Yet, this is the thing that God tells us to move away from. This is the very reason Jesus died on the cross; so, we could be set free from sin and move towards God, our promised land.

May we move away from the sin in our lives and towards the Lord our God, who is with us, going ahead of us, fighting for us, and caring for us like a "father cares for his child." May we keep moving!

~ Brian
