FAMILY MATTERS

I am Giving You the Choice

In Deuteronomy 11:27-28, Moses said, “You will be blessed if you obey the commands of the Lord your God that I am giving you today. But you will be cursed if you reject the commands of the Lord your God and turn away from him and worship gods you have not known before.”

As we read through Deuteronomy, the plea from Moses to Israel is to obey the Lord and all of his commands. Clearly, Moses states that if they “obey the commands of the Lord” they will be blessed. But if they “reject the commands of the Lord and turn away from him and worship gods” they will be cursed. It just seems so simple doesn’t it?

Earlier in verse 26, there is something profound here. Moses says, “Look, today I am giving you the choice between a blessing and a curse!” It’s here that we are reminded that we have a choice to make. It’s easy to read through the Old Testament and see a God who is angry, jealous, and will strike down those who are wicked. But here we see a God who loves us so much, that he gives us freedom to choose. The fact that God gives us this choice, shows that he loves us because if God forced us to choose him, it wouldn’t really be a choice and it definitely wouldn’t be love. God loves all people, but he won’t force us love Him.

So here you are reading this article. And you have a choice to make. Will you choose to obey our loving Lord who wants to bless us beyond measure or will you choose to turn from him and worship your own false gods, who won’t ever love you like you need?

In the words of Moses, “Today I am giving you the choice”,

~ Brian
